

Parents

- Set clear boundaries and expectations of nonuse, including consequences for chemical use, and talk regularly
- Participate in school parent's activities/groups
- Support and encourage your child's participation in school activities
- Volunteer in mentoring and after-school programs
- Attend parent/teacher conferences
- Know who your child is hanging with