

Community Partnership's Executive Director Tom Koplitz reporting the good news at the Rush City Lions Building at the Annual Partners Picnic on July 17th. Thank you to the Rush City Lions for your great support!

Teen Alcohol use is Down in Chisago County!

The results are in and the news is fantastic! Teen alcohol use in Chisago County is down significantly, according to Community Partnership's Student Survey of over 1,700 6th, 9th and 12th graders in Chisago County. The data was collected from students in the fall of 2007 and was recently released to the public. Check out these results:

Thanks to all the great work being done by all Partners for a Drug Free Chisago County. People, working together really can accomplish anything - Let's keep after it!
